

Konica Minolta Certifications

View Konica Minolta product certifications and Konica Minolta technical certifications right here.

- ### Cerner Certification

This functional evaluation of technology was designed to minimize downtime, reduce risks and insure compatibility. With it, Konica Minolta products are proven to be fully compatible with applications from Cerner Millennium, a global supplier of powerful yet intuitive healthcare solutions that optimize clinical and financial outcomes. Learn more

- ### Citrix Certified Partner

Our certification with Citrix provides Konica Minolta with software and services specializing in virtualization and remote access software for delivering applications over a network and the Internet. Learn more about our Citrix certifications.

- ### Windows Certification

All Konica Minolta multifunctional devices and print drivers achieve Microsoft Certification under the "Designed for Windows" program, which tells our customers and resellers that our products meet platform features and quality goals, ensuring their optimal performance on Windows®-based devices.

SAP Certified Print Provider

Certified print provider to help our customers work together more efficiently and use business insight more effectively.

Graviv Certified Compatible Partner

This certification allows Konica Minolta to bring leading computer software products for data collection, transformation, and distribution uses to our customers, essential for collecting data from paper and web based forms (Surveys, tests, assessments and other forms). Learn more.

Meditech Compatible Solution Partner

Konica Minolta products are compatible with this leading software vendor's products in the healthcare informatics industry that provides integrated solutions which meet the information needs of healthcare organizations worldwide. Learn more.

- Technical Certification

Outward is Konica Minolta's Technical Certification Program, which is a worldwide technical program targeted at our field technicians and support staff, our subsidiaries, and channel partners, including distributors, dealers and authorized service providers.